

Welcome to the PSCC website

This website provides information about the Power Systems Computation Conference (PSCC), which is a triennial conference organized in Europe since 1963. The legal domicile of PSCC is at Zürich, Switzerland. In addition to a general description of PSCC, its organisation and history, information about the next PSCC can be found, see above. Also the papers published at the last PSCCs can be accessed through this website.